PART II DIVERSION

Principles and Objectives

Principles

6. (1) The following principles apply in this Part in addition to the principles set out in section 4-

- (a) diversion is often the most appropriate and effective way to address juvenile crime;
- (b) diversion allows for effective and timely interventions focused on correcting offending behaviour;
- (c) diversion measures are presumed to be adequate to hold a juvenile accountable for his or her offence;
- (d) diversion measures should be used if they are adequate to hold a juvenile accountable for his or her offending behaviour.

(2) If the use of diversionary measures is consistent with the principles set out in this section nothing in this Act precludes their use in respect of a juvenile who-

- (a) has previously been dealt with by the use of diversion; or
- (b) has previously been found guilty of an offence.

Objectives

7. Diversion measures should be designed to-

- (a) provide an effective and timely response to offending behaviour outside the bounds of judicial measures;
- (b) encourage juveniles to acknowledge and repair the harm caused to the victim and the community;
- (c) encourage families of juveniles including extended families where appropriate and the community to become involved in the design and implementation of those measures;
- (d) provide an opportunity for victims to participate in decisions related to the measures selected to receive reparation;
- (e) promote reconciliation between the juvenile and the victim;
- (f) respect the rights and freedoms of juveniles and be proportionate to the seriousness of the offence; and
- (g) prevent stigmatizing the juvenile and the adverse consequences that may flow from being subject to the criminal justice system.

Conditions

8. Diversion measures-

- (a) shall not be exploitative, harmful or hazardous to the physical or mental health of the juvenile;
- (b) shall be appropriate to the age and maturity of the juvenile; and
- (c) shall not interfere with the education of the juvenile.

Measures

9. Diversion measures may include any one of the following measures or any combination of a number of them that are not inconsistent with each other-

- (a) an oral or written apology to a specified person or institution;
- (b) placement by the court under the supervision and guidance of the Chief Probation Officer;
- (c) the issue by the Chief Probation Officer of a positive peer association directive requiring the juvenile to associate for a specified period with a specified person who the Chief Probation Officer has reason to believe can contribute to the positive behaviour of the juvenile;
- (d) referral by the court to counseling or therapy for a specified period;
- (e) compulsory attendance ordered by the court at a specified place for a specified vocational or educational purpose for a specified period;
- (f) restitution by the juvenile as ordered by the court of a specified object to a specified victim of an alleged offence where the object concerned may be returned or restored;
- (g) performance as directed by the court without remuneration of some service for the benefit of the community under the supervision or control of an organisation or institution; or
- (h) provision as ordered by the court to a specified victim of compensation in an amount which the family of the juvenile can afford.

Development of diversion measures

10. The Director of Youth may-

- (a) develop and maintain suitable diversion programmes; and
- (b) recognise as suitable diversion programmes, those offered by government departments, non-governmental organizations and the Juvenile Justice Committee.

Use of measures

11. (1) A diversion measure may be used to deal with a juvenile alleged to have committed an offence only if the juvenile cannot be adequately dealt with by a warning or referral mentioned in sections 13, 14 or 15 because of the seriousness of the offence, the nature and number of previous offences committed by the juvenile or any other aggravating circumstances.

Restrictions on use of diversion measures

(2) A diversion measure may be used only if-

- (a) it is part of a programme of measures that may be authorised or recognised by the Director of Youth under section 10;
- (b) the person who is considering whether to use the diversionary measure is satisfied that it would be appropriate, having regard to the needs of the juvenile and the interests of society;
- (c) the juvenile having been informed of the diversion measure, fully and freely consents to be subject to it;
- (d) the juvenile has, before consenting to be subject to the diversion measure, been advised of his or her right to be represented by counsel and been given a reasonable opportunity to consult with counsel;
- (e) the juvenile accepts responsibility for the act or omission that forms the basis of the offence that he or she is alleged to have committed;
- (f) there is, in the opinion of the Director of Public Prosecutions, sufficient evidence to proceed with the prosecution of the offence; and
- (g) the prosecution of the offence is not in any way barred at law.

(3) A diversion option may not be used in respect of a juvenile who-

- (a) denies participation or involvement in the commission of the offence; or
- (b) expresses the wish to have the offence allegedly committed dealt with by the court.

Admission not admissible
in evidence

(4) Any admission, confession or statement accepting responsibility for a given act or omission that is made by a juvenile as a condition of being dealt with by diversion is inadmissible in evidence against the juvenile in civil or criminal proceedings.

No bar to judicial proceedings

(5) The use of a diversion measure in respect of a juvenile alleged to have committed an offence is not a bar to judicial proceedings under this Act, but if a charge is laid against the juvenile in respect of the offence-

- (a) the court shall dismiss the charge if it is satisfied on a balance of probabilities that the juvenile has totally complied with the terms and conditions of the diversion measure; or
- (b) the court may dismiss the charge if it is satisfied on a balance of probabilities that the juvenile has partially complied with the terms and conditions of the diversion measure and if, in the opinion of the court, prosecution of the charge would be unfair having regard to the circumstances and the juvenile's performance with respect to the diversion measure.

Laying of charge

(6) Subject to subsection (5) and section 20, nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing any person from laying a charge, obtaining the issue or confirmation of any process or proceeding with the prosecution of any offence in accordance with law.

Notice to parent

12. If a juvenile is dealt with by diversion, the person who administers the programme under which the measure is being applied, shall inform a parent of the juvenile in writing of the measure.

Duty of police officer to warn juvenile

14.(1) The Director of Public Prosecutions or a police officer shall, before starting judicial proceedings or taking any other measures under this Act against a juvenile alleged to have committed an offence, consider whether it would be sufficient, having regard to the principles set out in section 6, to take no further action, warn the juvenile, or, with the consent of the juvenile, refer the juvenile to a programme in the community established or recognised by the Director of Youth under section 10.

Savings

(2) The failure of a police officer to consider the options set out in subsection (1) does not invalidate any subsequent charges against the juvenile for the offence.

Evidence of measures inadmissible

15. Evidence that a juvenile has received a warning or referral mentioned in section 14 or that the Director of Public Prosecutions or a police officer has taken no further action in respect of an offence, and evidence of the offence, is inadmissible for the purpose of proving prior offending behaviour in any proceedings before a court in respect of the juvenile.
